

2020 Executive Council Candidate

Ian Scott

"Ian has been working and living in Japan for over 12 years and aside from his various other sporting appointments during his tenure in Japan he is currently a Senior Partner at Atsumi & Sakai, heading their Sports law group, Legal Counsel to World Rugby and the IOC. Ian has been an active participant of the Chamber, in particular supporting the activities as Co-Chair of the Sport for Business committee and related events. He is committed to increasing the Australian/New Zealand business and commercial relationships through sport and raising the Chamber's presence in what is a very important time for Australia, NZ and Japanese business."

